Matrimony as a Venture.
"I'm about to be married," writes a girl to this office, "and instead of receiving congratulations I am aware that I need a defence, and take this means of making it. I am 27 years old—old enough to know better and do better, but I have no choice. The man is a widower and has one child. He liked his first wife better than he does me; I liked a man years ago better than I like him, so we are quits on that. He wants a housekeeper; I want a home. I was brought up to sing a little and play a little, but have no trade. My parents would be glad to see me settled. I would be happy earning $5 or $6 a week and taking care of myself, but I was not taught how. There are thousands of women in my position. Every man who brings up his daughters without starting them with the means of earning a livelihood is responsible for just such a mistake as I shall make next month."—Atchison Globe.

Ran Away With a Man.
Mrs. Samuels, one of the most prominent and popular ladies of Moberly, and a beautiful woman, surrounded by warm friends and a loving family, went to visit friends at Huntsville, and while there met a young dry goods clerk named Morgan Cowan, and the two became so bewildered that they ran off together. Mr. Samuels missed the most of her clothing from the house, and not hearing from her, wrote to Columbia where she had intended going to visit relatives. Getting word that she had not been there, the husband was somewhat surprised, and finally it was suggested that she had eloped with a handsome man. This idea seemed so ridiculous that Mr. Samuels laughed heartily. He finally received a letter from St. Louis informing him that she had left never to return again. Mr. Samuels is a member of a leading insurance and real estate firm and is a man of considerable influence in Moberly.

Killed By the Bride's Father.
Nashville, Tenn., August 22.—A sensational tragedy with romantic coloring is reported from Montgomery county in this State. The 16-year old daughter of a prominent farmer named Halliburton went to prayer meeting, where she met a young man named Hite, whose attention her parents had forbidden. The couple ran away and were married on the street, and afterward the irate father pursued the bridegroom and killed him. Halliburton was himself wounded. Hite belonged to a prominent family.

The longest name is in the 8th chapter of Isaiah. The word "and" occurs 46,527 times. The 37 chapter of Isaiah and the 19th chapter of the 2nd book of Kings are alike. The longest verse is the 9th of the 8th chapter of Esther; the shortest the 35 of the 11th chapter of John. The 21st verse of 7th chapter of Ezra is the only one of the entire collection which contains every letter in the alphabet. New York, Aug. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Henry, of Brooklyn have a new baby, born last Friday, weighing only 1 pound and 8 ounces. It is a girl baby, and was weighed on Monday evening. The physician says its actual weight at the time of birth was, he thought, 1 pound and 7 ounces. The baby is taking its meals with a vim and is doing well. Its little head is only as large as a medium-sized peach. Dr. Whitcomb says it is the smallest child ever born.

A Narrow Escape.
The Ulrich Herald tells of the narrow escape of a babe of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hendrick from drowning. Mrs. Hendrick had gone past the pond to slop or feed the pigs, and the little one had followed to the pond without her knowledge. She had supposed the child to be at the house. On returning to the house the babe was missed and a search begun. In the meantime Jack Noble, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick, was passing the pond and was attracted by a splash in the water. At first he supposed it to be the work of a fish, but a second and louder splash caused him to turn his head just in time to see the babe's feet disappearing beneath the waves. He plunged into the water in time to save the little life, as it was found at the bottom of the pond. None but a mother can imagine the joy of Mrs. Hendrick in the safe return of her little one.

It is supposed the child had walked out on a board placed in the edge of the pond to stand on while dipping water, and had fallen in. The accidental passing of Mr. Noble whether his steps were guided by Providence or not, was the means of saving a life.

Dead to all Feeling.
Dexter, Mo., Aug. 22.—In the Ash Hill neighborhood, sixteen miles east of Dexter, is a young woman, 18 years old, named Widner who goes off into a trance daily and lies in this condition without perceptible pulse or heart beats for hours. Physicians have tried every restorative to bring her back to consciousness their efforts have been to no avail. A local physician was called to see her while in this state of suspended animation and pronounced her dead. To fully satisfy himself and the family, however, he inserted a needle in her body in several places and there was no movement or any sign that she felt it. The only indication of life was the warmth of the flesh and the red flesh glow from the hands when held before a light. The heart beat was not perceptible nor was there any muscular or nervous action of the body.

Supernatural sights are attributed to this young lady while in these trances. She becomes rigid about 9 o'clock each night, and remains this way for five or six hours. When she regains consciousness she appears none the worse from her strange experience. She has been an invalid for two years or more.

8,000 Out.
New York, Aug. 22.—Thirteen hundred cloakmakers on a strike is the latest acquisition to the roll of strikers who have thronged the streets and filled the halls on the East Side during the past four weeks. This makes a grand total of 8,000 workers now on strike belonging to the several branches of the garment trade in the Hebrew section of the city. The demand is for an increase of wages.

What Everybody Says About Brandy
That the Wines and Brandy of the Speer N. J. Wine Co., Passaic, N. J., are leading all others in public favor. Their Wines are unexcelled for delicacy of flavor, and are pronounced, by the most capable judges to be the very best in the market. For pure grape Brandy their Old Climax, vintage of 1876, is admittedly the best to be had and more reliable than French Brandy. Druggists sell it.

Winona, Ill., Aug. 22.—The remains of Ah-Fune, a Mongolian who died here in 1876, were disinterred last evening at the written request of his relatives, and will be taken by Yip Cheng to San Francisco in a satchel, and from there to China by another Chinaman. This is the first Celestial whose bones have been removed from Minnesota to their native soil.

More Outrages By Chinese.
Hong Kong, Aug. 22.—Another outrage has been committed upon missionaries near Foo-Chow. The American mission has been attacked by a large and infuriated mob armed with various weapons. The chapel and school house of the mission were wrecked and four of the native scholars were wounded. The foreign teacher, however, escaped injury.

Removal.
We take pleasure in announcing that after this date Parks Sure cure will remove all traces of rheumatism, kidney troubles and liver complaint from the user. It is the only medicine that is guaranteed to cure these diseases or not. Parks Sure cure is sold by H. L. Tucker.

Had a Cinch.
Harrodsburg, Ky., Aug. 25.—Mr. James Whit had listened to the bleatings of a calf. Finally his wife suggested that he go and see if anything had happened to the calf. He found the cow grazing complacently.

A large snake unwound itself from one of the animals hind legs and rapidly glided into the bushes that lined the fence near by. The snake, it seems, had formed a monopoly of the milk business, and while getting its fill would scare the calf away when it came up. The next day a watch was set, and it was noticed that the cow was very restless and frequently lowed, but at about 4 o'clock, when the snake appeared, she became calm. An attempt to kill the reptile proved a failure, for it again escaped into the weeds.
